

MISSIONS DAY
FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
APRIL 22, 2018

First Baptist Church at the Singing Bridge is excited to hold a Missions Day on Sunday, April 22, 2018. We hope to educate individuals on a small portion of the missions we support in addition to offering ways to be involved, whether it be with time, talents, resources, or prayers. The entire community of Frankfort is welcome and encouraged to attend Missions Day.

Schedule of Activities

9:00 – 10:00 a.m. Missions Fair in Fellowship Hall

The Missions Fair will feature nine of the missions supported at First Baptist. Each mission will have a table with information, and individuals will be on hand to answer questions and share specific prayer requests for each mission. People may stop by for a few minutes or the full hour; pastries and coffee will be provided. The nine missions featured for this year's fair include

Mission Frankfort Clinic
Emma Quire Mission Center
Center for the Arts
Payday Lending Ministry
Soup Kitchen
Clothes Closet and Toy Store
Cooperative Baptist Fellowship Global
Cooperative Baptist Fellowship Kentucky
Global Women

9:45 – 10:30 a.m. Bible Study (various classrooms)

We will have our regularly scheduled Sunday morning Bible Study classes. Our staff and congregation members can help any guest find a class to visit for the day.

10:50 – 11:50 a.m. Morning Worship

As part of Missions Day at First Baptist Church, we are overjoyed to have with us Suzii Paynter, Executive Coordinator of the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship (CBF). CBF is a Christian network comprised of people and churches that partner in renewing God's world and couldn't be happier to have Suzii as Executive Coordinator. Over the past decade she has gained a national reputation for her advocacy on important ethical issues such as religious liberty, hunger and poverty, human trafficking, immigration reform and the environment. If you would like to learn more about CBF and Suzii, please copy the link to a facebook live post into your browser:
