FBC Welcomes Suzii Paynter

Rev. Suzii Paynter is the Executive Coordinator of the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship. Prior to joining CBF in March 2013, she served in executive management of the Baptist General Convention of Texas (BGCT) as the director of the Texas Baptist Christian Life Commission and as director of the Advocacy Care Center. She directed public policy initiatives for state and federal issues and led international relief and development projects. During her tenure at the BGCT, which spanned more than a decade, she focused on creating and managing large-scale programs that focus on ministering alongside and advocating for the least of these.

Over the past decade, Suzii has gained a national reputation for her advocacy on important ethical issues such as religious liberty, hunger and poverty, human trafficking, immigration reform and the environment. She has been recognized by numerous national religious and secular organizations such as the Sierra Club, American Association of Retired Persons and Samaritan Counseling Centers. In 2013, the Baptist Joint Committee for Religious Liberty honored her with the J.M. Dawson Religious Liberty Award.

Suzii's work has also been highlighted on television programs such as Moyers in America, and in print publications such as the Wall Street Journal and The New Yorker. In April 2014, she was invited to the White House, where she discussed immigration reform with President Obama and a small group of faith leaders in the Oval Office. In September 2015, she was included in the group of national faith leaders that celebrated visit of Pope Francis in Washington, D.C., where she discussed issues of global hunger, religious liberty and climate change with faith and political leaders. Currently, she serves on the board of Christian Ethics Today, is a member of the executive committee of the Baptist World Alliance and chairs its Human Rights Advocacy Committee. A nationally recognized faith leader and ordained deacon and Sunday school teacher of more than 40 years, she has held positions of leadership in Baptist churches in Texas, Kentucky and Mississippi.

† Announcements †

SCHOOL FOR DISCIPLESHIP: Our second School for Discipleship will be April 28, 9:00 – noon. Cynthia Insko will guide us in identifying the gifts God has given each of us and how together we reflect the image of God and the light of Christ. This day will enrich your relationship with spouse, family, friends and church family and will encourage you to become the best and most loving you that God created you to be. Sign up by Wednesday, April 25, on the bulletin board or by emailing Cynthia.

RELAY FOR LIFE: The annual silent auction to raise money for cancer research through Relay for Life will be May 13 - 27. Donations of auction items are needed. If you are willing to donate an item, please bring it to the church office. Also, mark your calendar for May 20 when $5.00 brown bag lunches will be available for pick-up in fellowship hall following the service. If you have questions, please contact Joan Curtis or Keith Felton.

THE GREAT FAMILY GETAWAY: Registration is now open for our 2018 Vacation Bible School. Our overnight trip for preschool – 5th grade families to Kavanaugh Retreat Center (near Louisville) is July 27 and 28. Please visit our website, fbcfrankfort.org, and click on the scrolling VBS slide to register.

GRADUATE RECOGNITION: Please contact either Clint Walker or the church office with the name of the graduate in your family by May 1. We want an accurate list so we can honor, bless, and pray for all of our graduates on graduate recognition day, May 20.

COLLEGE CLASS: When your family member returns from college this summer, please let them know about our College Bible Study class beginning Sunday, May 13 at 9:45 a.m. Richard Summers will lead the class which meets in the Nexus room.
