† Anthem Text †

The Lord Is My Light

The Lord is my light, the light of my life, and my salvation.
The Lord is my strength, the strength of my life, and my salvation, of whom shall I be afraid? In time of trouble, He is there to comfort me, of whom shall I be afraid? When all my hopes are dead, He lifts my head.
The Lord is my light, the light of my life, and my salvation.
The Lord is my strength, the strength of my life, and my salvation.
One thing have I desired, to behold the beauty of the Lord. I will offer gifts of joy, and with Thy grace, seek Thy face. Lord, hide not Thy face far from me, leave me not, you’re my salvation. For you are my rock, the rock of my life, and my salvation. Of whom shall I be afraid? When I’m disheartened, you are there to see me through, of whom shall I be afraid? When I can no longer stand, You take my hand.
The Lord is my light, the light of my life, and my salvation.
The Lord is my strength, the strength of my life, and my salvation! The Lord is my strength, the Lord is my rock, the Lord is my, the Lord is my light!

† Missions Moment †

"Human trafficking is the slavery of our time. Women who have been trafficked often times have been subjected to profound trauma both physically and mentally. They also face social rejection, discrimination and humiliation both in their own society and the one for which they are forced to work. In France, a group of Christian women have joined together through the Ladies in Waiting ministry. This group aims to reach out and minister in holistic and meaningful ways to prostitutes.

The first time we met Jessica, we invited her to a Ladies in Waiting picnic and invited her to bring a friend if she would like. Jessica said, 'I don't have a friend.' That is what this ministry is all about; building beloved community with those who do not have a friend."

- Joel and Tiffne Whitley, CBF field personnel in Strasbourg, France
