† Anthem Text †

In the Upper Room

Children, I am with you but a little while. Where I go, you cannot follow. You will seek, but will not find me; still you know that I am the Way.

Don’t be troubled that I say I go away; it is best for you I go now. If I go, I’ll make a place for you; and I’ll come to take you some day. I will send the Holy Spirit to you to lead you in truth, to guide what you do. He’ll remind you then of all I have said; and I will always be with you.

Take and eat my body broken now for you; take and drink the blood I offer. What I do for you, you know not, if you love me, you will obey.

I will send the Holy Spirit to you, to lead you in truth, to guide what you do. He’ll remind you then of all I have said, and I will always be with you.

Children, I am with you but a little while; where I go, you cannot follow. You will look, but will not find me; still you know that I am the Way. Still you know that I am the Way.

† Missions Moment †

"The doorbell rang one morning before any of us were quite dressed. Monika and Damian, our young Polish friends, stood on the doorstep. On this icy morning, their daily commute in bumper-to-bumper traffic had resulted in a domino-effect auto accident. Their Dutch boss had given them the rest of the day off to sort things out. They came by for prayer, moral support, and help in navigating Dutch accident reports and insurance systems. Keith ended up phoning the insurance company for them and going along to several garages. These are simple, practical things which we know -- from personal experience as strangers in a strange land--all internationals need and appreciate. It is through these connections and simple actions that we are able to cultivate beloved community in the Netherlands."

- Keith Holmes and Mary van Rheenen,
CBF field personnel in the Netherlands
