† Anthem Text †

One at the Feast

He ate bread at their tables, He joined them in their feasts, and many asked the Savior, “Why do You dine with these, the outcast and the sinner, the dying and the poor? There are many greater than these You sit before.” Break the bread and pour the wine, let them drink, let them dine, none is greater than the least, all are one, one at the feast.

So let the poor and the wealthy be seated side by side, the sick among the healthy, the widow by the bride, the hungry and the thirsty with those who have been fed and share the feast together, come share the wine and bread. Break the bread and pour the wine, let them drink, let them dine, none is greater than the least, all are one, one at the feast.

Gather at the table, come and take your place, there is room for many at the feast of grace. With the bread remember, with the wine recall Jesus gave His body and His blood for all. Break the bread and pour the wine, let them drink, let them dine, none is greater than the least, all are one, one at the feast. We are one at the feast.

† Missions Moment †

"One day, Emily told me that at work, a doctor had proclaimed 'we are all Muslims here,' in a very self-satisfied way. With her heart pounding, Emily respectfully said, 'well no...we are not all Muslims.' This man grilled her and tried to convince her that she was brainwashed. Emily answered his questions about her beliefs quietly and honestly, quoting scripture to make her points. Being a Christian here is tough, but Emily trusts God with all her heart. Pray for her to continue to be brave and for God to protect her as she shares her faith in a hostile environment."

Sunday School: During the month of June, children 3 years old - 5th grade will meet with Ms. Cynthia, Ms. Jenny, and Amy Smith on the third floor at 9:45. We’ll have fun stories and crafts that help us learn more about Jesus’ teachings. Children ages 2 and under will be in the nursery near the sanctuary.

Children’s Worship: When children leave the sanctuary during the service in June, we’ll focus on picture book theology. Each week we will read a story and wonder what it teaches us about God. You may want to look at this resource for your family when checking out summer library books that can stimulate conversations about God at home: www.picturebooktheology.com

Now we're ready for a bit of barefooted, laid back summertime! TODAY each children's family will be provided with a Family Bucket full of some fun summer activities for your family. Each activity is designed to help you soak up your summer and have some meaningful conversations and family time about loving God and others. While we are spread out doing many things during this season, this will help us all remember that God is with us everywhere we go and family relationships are often where we experience God. Please take your bucket from the table in the hallway outside the nursery, today.
