† Anthem Text †

When We Meet at Your Table, Lord

When we meet at your table, Lord, bread is broken, the cup is poured. Then as we confess our unworthiness, we are ransomed, forgiven, restored;
when we meet at your table, Lord.

When we meet at your table, Lord, and we gather to hear your Word, here your gifts divine are a sacred sign of your love for the world outpoured; when we meet at your table, Lord.

When we meet at your table, Lord, with the angels and saints adored, we see your face, know your glorious grace as we worship in one accord, when we meet at your table, Lord.

“Til we meet, ‘til we meet, ‘til we meet at Jesus’ feet.

“Til we meet, ‘til we meet, we will eat the bread, we will drink the cup, as we wait for the day when we meet at your heavenly table, Lord.

† Missions Moment †

"Refugees come to our Southeast Asian country from other parts of South Asia. They are smuggled across multiple countries and left in the middle of an island jungle to fend for themselves. On arrival, they have no passport, no money and no common language.

When these young refugees find their way to our student ministry, they have spent several years in immigration detention centers. They are alone and they have no means of support and no opportunities for formal education.

Practicing beloved community in our context means becoming family to those who have none. Beloved community means sacrificially giving our time and our finances as we embody and share Christ's love."

- Brooke and Mike,
CBF field personnel in Southeast Asia
