Close Your Eyes and See

Close your eyes and see God’s glory. Close your lips, speak with your heart. Bring your soul quiet and open. This is where God’s work will start.
Come, be still, for God is moving, touching hearts with love and grace. All who come will be made holy. For the Lord is in this place. He’s in this place.
Bring the Lord, your prayers unspoken. Secret worry, private fear. In your darkness God still can see you. In your silence God can hear.
Lord, we come to see your Glory. Help us hear all You will say. When we find it hard to worship, Spirit come to show the way. Come show the way. Close your eyes and see, close your lips and say, meet us today.

† Missions Moment †

"A local partner congregation here in Texas recently invested over $700 in bi-lingual Bibles written specifically for young children. After their recent book fair, we presented about 40 of the 90 Bibles to Kindergarten children. This particular Bible can be read by parents to their children, whether they speak primarily English or Spanish at home. There are also really wonderful pictures inside to help the children understand stories from the Bible. The rest of the Bibles will be used this summer during Vacation Bible School. What a great gift! I am always thankful for wonderful partners who help bring God's Word to the people of southern Texas!"

PASTOR SEARCH COMMITTEE:

Our Pastor Search Committee is hard at work. One of their initial steps is developing both a Pastor Profile of what our church is looking for in our new pastor and a Church Profile so candidates will better understand how we view FBC.

To help the committee develop these profiles, committee members will be visiting Sunday School classes on either August 12, 19, or 26. Three questions will be asked.

1. What qualities/strengths are you looking for in a new pastor which would support lay discipleship?
2. What will candidates want to know about First Baptist Church?
3. From your perspective, what are the priorities and goals for the church moving forward?

In addition to the committee getting to know you better as you discuss your thoughts and ideas with them, they feel it's important for you to also get to know the committee better. Each week for the next nine weeks, we'll feature one committee member for whom you can learn more. This week we feature Erica Galyon:

Erica Galyon fell in love with FBC Frankfort five years ago when she and her family first started attending. She believes the next pastor will encourage and grow the Church's thirst for exploring the mysteries of faith, while also moving FBC Frankfort in new ways of outreach in the capital city. Erica is a mother of two, Michaela (10), and Braydon (9), and is married to Jason Galyon. Erica practices law, focusing on banking and lending law. She is excited and humbled by the opportunity to work on the pastor search committee. Erica is enthusiastic about the future of the FBC Frankfort and thanks the congregation for its continued prayers.

We pray for Erica and the entire Pastor Search Committee!
