Celtic Prayer

Hear my voice, most gracious Lord. O hear the prayer within my soul. May the words rise to You with songs of praise. Give me peace, touch my heart to feel Your everlasting love. Hear my prayer, Holy Lord, in the morning when I rise.
Lead my life, most faithful Lord, to seek Your thoughts and know Your will. For my soul longs to dwell within Your care. Give me strength, guide my steps to live according to Your Word. Lead my life, Holy Lord, in the beauty of Your grace.
Search me, O Lord, and know my heart. Try me, O God, and know my thoughts. Find any wrong that dwells within my heart. And lead me forever in Your everlasting love. I will sing with all my heart, I sing of God's unchanging love. For His mercy endures forevermore. May my trust rest in God to know the fullness of His grace. Hear my prayer, Holy Lord, in the stillness of this hour. Hear my prayer, Holy Lord, in the stillness of this hour.

† Missions Moment †

"In Cambodia, widows, orphans, immigrants and the poor still need protection. The spirit world is an everyday preoccupation, with temples in every neighborhood and frequent offerings to stone idols. Daily bread is not a given. These are major concerns of the Bible, but in the US, we usually gloss over these passages or spend a lot of time contextualizing them to make sense to us. In Cambodia, though, many of these passages apply directly to the lives of Cambodians with little explanation needed. By reading the Bible in Khmer alongside Cambodians, I see significant themes that are hard to notice in an American context. New words, interesting translation choices, different grammar, and having to read more slowly help me see things I've never noticed before. You may not be able to learn a new language just for reading the Bible, but I encourage you to think about how you can find ways to see the Bible with fresh eyes."

PASTOR SEARCH COMMITTEE:

Our Pastor Search Committee is hard at work. One of their initial steps is developing both a Pastor Profile of what our church is looking for in our new pastor and a Church Profile so candidates will better understand how we view FBC.

To help the committee develop these profiles, committee members will be visiting Sunday School classes on either August 12, 19, or 26. Three questions will be asked.

1. What qualities/strengths are you looking for in a new pastor which would support lay discipleship?
2. What will candidates want to know about First Baptist Church?
3. From your perspective, what are the priorities and goals for the church moving forward?

In addition to the committee getting to know you better as you discuss your thoughts and ideas with them, they feel it's important for you to also get to know the committee better. Each week for the next nine weeks, we'll feature one committee member for whom you can learn more. This week we feature Dan Shouse.

Dan Shouse became a member of FBC in 2006 along with his wife, Tammy (a registered nurse), and son, Nathaniel (a paramedic). Careers in Fire and EMS, Public Safety and Health Care have instilled in him the importance of helping those in need. Dan believes there is no better place than FBC to provide this discipleship to all brothers and sisters in the name of Christ.

We pray for Dan and the entire Pastor Search Committee!

SIX WEEK BOOK STUDY: We are excited to read and discuss Bob Goff's bestselling book, Everybody Always: Becoming Love in a World Full of Setbacks and Difficult People. Erica Galyon will facilitate one group meeting Sundays, 4:00 - 5:30 pm, beginning August 19. Dwight Lovan will facilitate the second group meeting Tuesdays, 12:00 - 1:30 pm, starting August 21. Sign up by contacting Cynthia or on the bulletin board. Books, $10 each, will be available beginning Monday, August 6, to pick up in the church office.

Five Loaves and Two Fishes

God uses what you have to fill a need which you never could have filled.

God uses where you are to take you where you never could have gone.

God uses what you can do to accomplish what you never could have done.

God uses who you are to let you become who you never could have been.
