How Deep the Father’s Love for Us

How deep the Father’s love for us, how vast beyond all measure that he should give His only Son to make a wretch his treasure. How great the pain of searing loss. The Father turns his face away as wounds which mar the Chosen One bring many sons to glory.
How high, how wide, how deep the Father’s love for us. Behold the Man upon a cross, my sin upon his shoulders. Ashamed, I hear my mocking voice call out among the scoffers. It was my sin that held him there until it was accomplished; his dying breath has brought me life. I know it is finished.
How pure, how strong, how deep the Father’s love for us. I will not boast of anything: no gifts, no power, no wisdom. But I will boast in Jesus Christ: his death and resurrection. Why should I gain from his reward? I cannot give an answer. But this I know with all my heart: his wounds have paid my ransom.
How high, how wide. How pure, how strong. How deep the Father’s love for us.

SCHOOL FOR DISCIPLESHIP: Please join us for our School for Discipleship study this quarter on August 25, 9:00 - noon, on the topic of Baptist Faith and Heritage. As we search for a new pastor and revisit who we are and what we value, this conversation is particularly helpful and relevant. Dr. Keith Felton will discuss how Baptists began, what makes Baptists distinct, and how First Baptist Church Frankfort came to be part of The Cooperative Baptist Fellowship. Sign up on the bulletin board.

CHILDREN’S VOLUNTEERS LUNCH AND TRAINING:

ALL children’s volunteers for Nursery, Sunday School, Choirs, and Missions are asked to stay for lunch on Sunday, August 26. PASTOR SEARCH COMMITTEE:

We hope you're thinking about the listed questions. Our search committee will be visiting Sunday School classes on either August 12, 19, or 26 to hear your ideas.

1. What qualities/strengths are you looking for in a new pastor which would support lay discipleship?
2. What will candidates want to know about First Baptist Church?
3. From your perspective, what are the priorities and goals for the church moving forward?

Learn more about committee vice-chair, Amy Smith:

Amy Smith grew up in our church and, now, volunteers in Children's ministry and with the Spiritual Formation Committee. She uses her doctorate in organizational development to help design programs for those who need decent, quality housing and loves to read, bake, and celebrate "Christmas in July" and all other holidays. Amy is married (Scott) and is mom to Hannah (20), Ben (16), Sophie (9), and ninja-kitty Mango (6). She loves that FBC welcomes folks into a community of believers-- wherever they are in their journey--in exploring the mysteries of their faith.

We pray for Amy and the entire Pastor Search Committee!
