† Anthem Text †

Let My Heart Be Quiet

Lord, let my heart be quiet, command my thoughts to still, and capture my attention to Your will.
Of all the thousand voices ‘round that clamor in my ear, let it be Your voice, the voice that I can hear.
Lord, let my heart be quiet, let all distractions cease. Make room within my heart for perfect peace.
Lord, let my heart be quiet and ready to receive eternal Words of truth You have decreed. And let me learn to linger in quiet times of prayer; unhurried, let me often meet You there.
Oh, let my heart be quiet; my restless mind subdue. Let all my expectation come from You, and daily help me choose to let my inward self be still, so that Your voice my quiet mind can fill.
Lord, let my heart be quiet. Lord, let my heart be still.

† Missions Moment †

"We were recently asked to train 100+ Ukrainian Christian school teachers. When asked about the most important problem in their classrooms, the common answers were discipline and authority. The Ukrainian educational system still uses the old Soviet system. It does not value students, practices shaming and expects authority. During the training I explained that authority delivers short-term results, but influence goes farther. We used Jesus' example with the Samaritan woman to show Jesus' focus on building relationships that lead to transformation. At the end of our teaching, unexpectedly, we were thanked with a standing ovation and an outpouring of gifts. We are thankful that through CBF we are able to fulfill our call to teach and train others to be witnesses of God's acceptance, redeeming love and abundant life."

SCHOOL FOR DISCIPLESHIP: Please join us for our School for Discipleship this Saturday, August 25, 9:00 - noon, on the topic of Baptist Faith and Heritage. As we search for a new pastor and revisit who we are and what we value, this conversation is particularly helpful and relevant. Dr. Keith Felton will discuss how Baptists began, what makes Baptists distinct, and how First Baptist Church Frankfort came to be part of The Cooperative Baptist Fellowship. Sign up on the bulletin board.

CHILDREN'S VOLUNTEERS LUNCH AND TRAINING: ALL children's volunteers for Nursery, Sunday School, Choirs, and Missions are asked to stay for lunch next Sunday, August 26. Please join us for this training time.

SIX WEEK BOOK STUDY: Our new book study begins today and this Tuesday. Erica Galyon will facilitate the Sunday group, 4:00 - 5:30 pm, beginning TODAY. Dwight Lovan will facilitate the Tuesday group, 12:00 - 1:30 pm. Books, $10 each, are available in the office.

PASTOR SEARCH COMMITTEE: Our search committee is visiting with Sunday School classes through the end of August. If you are unable to attend a class, you may stay after the service on August 26 and speak with a team member in Heritage Hall. Today we highlight search committee chairperson, Dwight Lovan:

Dwight is married to the wonderful Beverly. They have a daughter, two sons and an amazing granddaughter. Dwight has attended FBC since 2012. He was raised in the Baptist tradition by parents who encouraged him to be confident in his faith and in doing so not to fear having his faith challenged or its doctrines questioned. He believes God calls all of us to be ministers without limitation by our age, gender, socioeconomic status, doctrinal correctness or anything for that matter. Dwight believes God loves him and you and always will.

We pray for Dwight and the entire Pastor Search Committee!
