Behold, How Good

Behold, how good, behold, how wonderful, behold how pleasant to dwell in harmony. Behold, how good, behold, how wonderful, behold how pleasant to dwell in harmony, together all as one.
From one he made all nations to live on all the earth. In one we move and have our being, our life, our strength. Behold, how good, behold, how wonderful, behold how pleasant to dwell in harmony, together all as one.
Behold, how good, behold, how wonderful, behold how pleasant to dwell in harmony. Behold, how good.
Behold.

† Missions Moment †

CBF field personnel Karen Morrow shares with others that refugees resettled in the United States receive pre-planned support for six months. That includes the basics, such as a place to live, homemaking necessities, a first job. “But from then on, they’re lost,” she says, explaining newcomers still need help learning to adjust to and fit into their adopted country.

“A Congolese father told me: ‘We do not want your things (although they still could use more things). We want your relationship. Where we came from, our aunties and uncles taught us how to make a life. We do not know how to live here.’ So, we’re here to create community, to make them feel welcome, to teach them how to live here.”

Karen Morrow does that in the name and spirit of Christ. She crosses language, ethnic and religious barriers with friendly support and the love of Jesus.

The flowers in the sanctuary, today, are in loving memory of Herald and Cleota Bolling from their family.

† Announcements †

YOUTH CAMP: We are excited to announce our youth will attend Passport Missions Camp at Furman University in South Carolina next July. A $50 deposit must be turned in by September 30. Also, please continue to pray for our Youth Planning and Search Team. They are actively working to help build a solid foundation for our young people. Pray for the team, our youth, and how you can help support this vital group.

CHILDHOOD TRAUMA IN OUR COMMUNITY: How can we, as a church community, respond and help those who have experienced trauma in their lives? Diane Gruen-Kidd, a national expert in childhood trauma and trauma informed care, will speak at First United Methodist Church TODAY from 5:00-6:00. All are welcome to attend this free event.

DEACON NOMINATIONS: Deacon nomination forms are located on the front and back entrance tables. Please prayerfully consider who you would like to nominate, and place your completed form in the offering plate today or next Sunday, September 30.

COMPASSION INTERNATIONAL: You may remember our Children’s Ministry sponsors a child, Eric Dusengimana, through Compassion International, a child-advocacy ministry. Eric lives in Rwanda and just celebrated his sixth birthday yesterday. Eric gets up at 6:00 to fetch water then does casual work so he can earn money to purchase food in the market place. He herds animals and helps cultivate beans and wheat. You’ll find a collection jar in your Sunday School room where you can place donations if you’d like to help us sponsor Eric.

PRAYER MEETING: We encourage everyone to attend prayer meeting this coming Wednesday, September 26, 6:15 pm in Fellowship Hall. Gary and Janie Forman will share testimony from their recent mission trip to South Africa and Zambia.

† Announcements †

SELF-DISCOVERY BOOK STUDY: By popular demand from our membership, we are offering a five week book study of The Road Back to You: An Enneagram Journey to Self-Discovery. The Enneagram helps us see our story clearly, continuously acknowledge the ways we push away love, and intentionally work to stand in our transformed identity in Christ. Instead of being at odds with God's Word, the Enneagram propels us to heed to Scripture and be connected to its Author. The book study begins Sunday, October 14, 2:30-4:00, and $10 covers your book and study guide. Please sign up on the bulletin board.

BAPTIST IDENTITY BOOK STUDY: We are offering a four week book study of The Baptist Identity: Four Fragile Freedoms. This Walter Shurden book visits for freedoms: Bible Freedom, Soul Freedom, Church Freedom, and Religious Freedom to help answer the questions of what makes a Baptist a Baptist and what is the shape and feel of Baptist Christianity. Join us on Sundays, beginning October 14, 2:30-3:30, or on Tuesdays, starting October 16, noon-1:00. Cost is $10 for your book and you may sign up on the bulletin board.

SOUP KITCHEN: Our soup kitchen volunteers work tomorrow at 9:30. We would love to have your help!
