The Whisper

In the desert, in the wilderness of life, I am searching for the One who searches me. As I wander, hungry, thirsty, lost, alone, I hear God’s call; I hear the whisper of my name. “Come to the table. Your name is written on My hand. Come to the table. Your name is hidden in my heart. Come to the table, come to the table. Come to the table and live.”

At the table, He prepares for me a place. He redeems me, I am pardoned by His grace. He restores me with His rich and lavish love, In His call, I hear the whisper of my name. “Come to the table. Your name is written on My hand. Come to the table. Your name is hidden in my heart. Come to the table, come to the table. Come to the table and live. Come to the table. Your name is written on My hand. Come to the table. Your name is hidden in my heart. Come to the table, come to the table. Come to the table and live. In His call, I hear the whisper of my name.

† Missions Moment †

This past summer, we excitingly began a Living Well alumni group. I coordinate the Living Well life skills empowerment program for survivors of domestic violence and homelessness. Together with the Living Well team, we have recently connected with our graduates from years past and started a monthly gathering.

Because these women share trustingly with each other and allow me to bear witness to their stories, they are teaching me that we never stop needing our community to rally around us. Domestic violence is an extremely isolating trauma, and even after graduating the program, survivors continue to struggle with isolation.

I’ve listened to women echo the struggles of their peers and immediately offer a point of connection, supporting and holding each other up. When these women come together, they create sacred ground.
