It Is Well With My Soul

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way, when sorrows like sea billows roll; whatever my lot, you have taught me to say, it is well, it is well with my soul.

Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come, let this blest assurance control; that Christ has regarded my helpless estate, and has shed his own blood for my soul! My sin- O, the bliss of this glorious thought; my sin, not in part, but the whole is nailed to the cross and I bear it no more, praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

And Lord, haste the day when my faith shall be sight, the clouds be rolled back as a scroll, the trump shall resound and the Lord shall descend, “Even so,” It is well with my soul!

It is well with my soul, it is well with my soul, it is well, it is well with my soul!

† Missions Moment †

God has been nudging my heart with statements and questions that I have heard from refugees over the years of ministry to internationals. Statements such as: “I have been in the United States for 17 years and this is the first time I have been in an American home,” and questions like “Can you find me one American friend?”

I have been calling on my network of friends and asking them to host new immigrants in their homes. The degree of hosting varies: for tea, for dinner, overnight. I personally have been hosting and been hosted by Iranians, Afghan and Tajik for many years.

The blessings are many and the relationships are enriching. I am opening the door as wide as possible to help others experience this blessing. God is calling us to this work. The Bible says, “I was a stranger and you invited me in...” Matthew 25:35b. Pray for Christians who will open their doors!
