† Anthem Text †

Silent Was the Night

Silent was the night in dark Gethsemane. The Savior knelt to pray in deep humility. Quiet were the stars that once had sung on high. The birds all hushed their singing as the Lamb prepared to die. Worthy, worthy, worthy is the Lamb. Worthy, worthy, worthy is the Lamb.
Silent was the night beneath the olive trees. The Savior cries alone, His heart in agony. Soon the noise of hate will echo through the night; and the silence will be broken by shouts of “Crucify!”
Worthy, worthy, worthy is the Lamb. Worthy, worthy, worthy is the Lamb.
Lonesome winds began to blow. Tears began to fall as Jesus took the bitter cup and chose to drink it all. “Father, let Thy will be done.” He prayed in deepest grief. With grace He rose to face the night, then turned toward Calvary.
Worthy, worthy, worthy is the Lamb. Worthy, worthy, worthy is the Lamb.

† Missions Moment †

These Roma friends of ours live in Moldova, the poorest country in Europe. There isn’t much employment there for majority Moldovans, and even less for Roma.

Therefore, these brothers and sisters in Christ have worked as migrant workers in Ireland (sorting recycling), England (Internet warehouse), Germany (KFC kitchen), and now the Netherlands (picking tomatoes in a greenhouse). They can earn more in a week doing this than they could in a month in Moldova, but the hours are long and the work is hard.

There are other costs, too. Radj has been separated from his wife and baby daughter for six months. This is why we pray and work for transformational development in their own communities.

- Keith Holmes and Mary van Rheenen, field personnel in the Netherlands

† Announcements †

LENTEN DEVOTIONALS: We hope you continue to utilize your Lenten Devotional books and cds. Remember, both written and audio copies may be found on our website, fbcfrankfort.org.

TOGETHER FOR HOPE: We are excited for Dr. Keith Stillwell to present on the work of Together for Hope (TFH), especially in Appalachia, during Prayer Meeting this Wednesday, March 27, 6:15 pm. First Baptist Church Frankfort has been involved with TFH in Owsley County through the Emma Quire Mission Center. Learn the big picture of Together for Hope and how it is expanding.

TRAVEL MUGS HAVE ARRIVED: Our FBC CONNECT Travel Mugs have arrived! Mugs are in your Sunday school rooms. DIDN'T ORDER A MUG BUT WOULD LIKE ONE NOW? We ordered extras! They are $10/mug and are available from the church office.

SOUP KITCHEN: Our Soup Kitchen Team will be in action, tomorrow, March 25. Extra helping hands are always welcome! Come join us at 9:30 am. See Adell Kemper or Keith Felton if you have questions.

PUBLICATION AVAILABLE: The spring edition of Cooperative Baptist Fellowship’s magazine, fellowship!, is now available on the church entrance tables. Please help yourself to a copy.

SCHEDULING NOTE: Please note there will be no children or youth activities on Wednesday, April 3, due to Spring Break. All other activities will still be held.
