† Anthem Text †

I Will Lift Up My Eyes

I will lift up my eyes to the hills; from where does my help come? My help comes from the Lord, the Creator of heaven and earth.

I will lift up my eyes to the hills; from where does my help come? My help comes from the Lord, the Creator of heaven and earth.

The Lord watches over us. He never sleeps nor slumbers. The Lord is the shade on your right hand; The sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night.

I will lift up my eyes to the hills; from where does my help come? My help comes from the Lord, the Creator of heaven and earth.

The Lord watches over us. He never sleeps nor slumbers. The Lord will protect us from evil. He’ll guard our coming and going, for now and evermore.

I will lift up my eyes to the hills; from where does my help come? My help comes from the Lord, the Creator of heaven and earth.

My help comes from the Lord!

FBC BOOK CLUB: FBC is starting a Book Club! Join us at the first meeting next Sunday, June 23, 4:00 pm, for pie, coffee, and a great discussion of the book, “The Road Back to You: An Enneagram Journey to Self-Discovery” by Ian Morgan Cron and Suzanne Stabile. Yes, some may have previously read this book, but that’s okay! This is a great read (or re-read) for anyone, especially those participating in or just thinking about participating in, this fall’s Enneagram study. Sign up on the bulletin board. Looking ahead: The next book club meeting will be July 14 and will focus on Amy Luscher Smith’s book, “My Faith Sparkles”.

SUMMER SCHEDULE: Join us on Wednesday evenings!

5:30 – Formations preview class
6:00 – Prayer meeting, Clinic, Clothes Closet
6:30 – Sanctuary choir

LABYRINTH WALK: The Labyrinth Walk is an ancient spiritual formation experience that takes you on an inward and outward journey in prayer. Join us Sunday, June 30, 6:30 p.m., at Dolly Graham Park (225 River Street at the east end of Second Street) for our first FBC Labyrinth Walk. After an introduction, you may walk the Labyrinth at your own pace. Drinks and snacks will be provided.

SUNDAY SCHOOL: “Summer Sunday School” began last week for our adult classes. About half of our classes remain in their regular classroom setting while the other half join together for a video and discussion series throughout the summer. Please choose what works for you! If you are in a “regular” class but would like to try the “combined” class, we welcome you! If you are in the “combined” class and want to try the “regular” classes, we welcome you!

BOOK BUDDIES MENTORING PROGRAM: First Baptist Church is partnering with Frankfort Independent Schools to create a literacy-based mentoring program at Second Street School, kindergarten through grade three. We are looking for volunteers who will commit to one day a week at Second Street, usually during the lunch period, and read to a child. Teachers will decide which students need this service. Volunteers will need to undergo a criminal background check and a child abuse screen and attend training provided by the school. Our goal is to recruit 20 mentors by the end of July so we can begin shortly after school starts. If you know someone who is not a church member, we need them, too! If you still work, perhaps you can make arrangements with your employer. Sign up on the bulletin board or contact Ronnie Dunn at 502-226-0205 or ronniedunn07@gmail.com. “Reading aloud with children is known to be the single most important activity for building the knowledge and skills they will eventually require for learning to read.” Marilyn Jager Adams

RELAY FOR LIFE: It’s not too late to help the American Cancer Society and our FBC Relay for Life team. You may give your donation to Joan Curtis or Anne Lee before the end of July!

MOVE IT MONDAYS: We encourage our youth to take part in Marcus' Move It Mondays, a six week exercise and fitness class. The session begins June 24, 11:30 – 12:30, and youth may bring a sack lunch to enjoy together from 12:30 – 1:00. Youth parents, for more information or to register your child, please contact Marcus or Kara.

A NOTE FROM BACKPACK SNACKS: During the 2018 – 2019 school year, FBC's monetary and food donations, with others, helped provide 6,925 bags of weekend meals for students. On average, 210 students received these bags of small meals each weekend. Your kindness and generosity made a major difference for many students. Thank you for all you do for these students!

† Missions Moment †

Greetings are important in any missionary work. But special importance is given to greeting a newborn.

Koffi and Elisabeth had drifted from their Christian faith and were both living far from their own people group. Lomé, Togo, is a very big city and it is easy to get lost, but soon a group of refugees from Ivory Coast who are working with Togo House Ministries found them and took them in.

The newlyweds soon discovered they were parents to be, but with no family around to help, did not know how they would make it. Their new friends from Ivory Coast pitched in. A room was found for the couple to rent, a job was found for Koffi, and daily prayers and visits shared with Elisabeth.

A week after little Gracia arrived, it was time for her first coming out. The new parents chose Wednesday Bible Study, which meets in a garage in the Ivorians house for the occasion. Greetings and blessings in prayers and songs were shared over this newest family member by all of us—and in a real way by those who partner with CBF. Together, we greet Gracia and welcome her to her new home, the family of God.
