† Anthem Text †

All Things to All

He is a path to the misled, and to the hungry, He is bread, to the prisoner, He is free, and to the weak, how strong is He!
To those in darkness, He is light, and to the blinded, He is sight, to the broken, He is health, and to the needy, He is wealth.
We have no greater friend than He, who satisfies our every need. Source of what was, what is, will be, all things to all He is indeed!
He is defender of the scorned, a comfort to the ones who mourn, to the weary, He is rest, and He is hope to the oppressed.
O He is courage to the meek, the answer to the ones who seek, Yes, He is peace to those in strife, and to the dying, He is life.
We have no greater friend than He, who satisfies our every need. Source of what was, what is, will be. All things to all He is indeed, all things to all He is indeed, all things to all
He is indeed!

† Missions Moment †

When you think of sharing your faith with friends, perhaps you’re a bit timid, maybe a little anxious, but are you ever afraid?
Our student ministry here in Southeast Asia consists of believers in Christ from a myriad of traditions—those who don’t believe in anything, as well as people who are committed to other faiths.
One of our students joins for Bible study, for semester retreats, and even went to church on Good Friday. She’s not a Christian and comes from a strict family.
Brooke asked her best friend what would happen if she were to become a Christian. She said, matter of factly, “Her uncle would probably kill her.” How much do you believe Jesus is the Way, the Truth, the Life? Is this message worth dying for?

FBC WELCOME LUNCHEON: We are excited for visitors, new members, and any members who feel as if they have missed some basic orientation to Frist Baptist to join us next Sunday, October 13, in Fellowship Hall following morning worship for an FBC Welcome Luncheon. Participants will be introduced to the church’s history, identity, ministries, church leaders, and ministry staff who will answer any questions you may have. In addition, you’ll be offered a tour of the church buildings. Reservations are required. Call the church office by tomorrow, Monday, October 7, to register.

ROOM AT THE TABLE: FBC is offering a fun, unique, and meaningful experience on Saturday, October 12, 9:30 am – noon. Join Erica Settelen, FBC childcare staff, chef, and culinary arts instructor, as she teaches us kitchen basics and ease of preparing a meal at home. Paired with a discussion, led by Erica Galyon, on reviving family dinner around your table, this is a great experience for adults, youth, and families. All are welcome. A fee of $10 per adult or $20 per family will defray the costs of the food and tastings. Please sign up on the bulletin board or call the church office by Sunday, October 6, to register.

RECYCLING: Our Children’s Ministry is encouraging you to help others through their Book Drive for the Toy Store which continues through October, but you can also help our Children’s Ministry in another way. Our children could use your newspapers, thin cardboard boxes (like cereal boxes), toilet paper and paper towel rolls, magazines, and small wood scraps. Items can be place in recycling tubs in the nursery foyer or 3rd floor hallway.

LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR: We are encouraging each of our Sunday School classes to plan a Love Your Neighbor project together to complete this fall. It could be a big project or a small one that involves the whole class. Be creative. We don’t want to limit your thinking, but you may always consider helping an elderly or disabled neighbor or church member who needs something done around the house or helping with one of our FBC missions, such as the Clothes Closet or Soup Kitchen. The possibilities are only limited to your creativity.

WEDNESDAY SCHEDULE CHANGE: Please note! This Wednesday, October 9, there will be no children or youth activities. This includes children's choirs, children's missions, youth handbells, and youth group. Childcare will continue to be available through the end of Sanctuary Choir rehearsal.

TOWN HALL AND BUSINESS MEETINGS: Our quarterly business meeting is October 23, 6:15 pm. This very important meeting will include a vote on the 2020 proposed budget and our annual Nominating Team Report.

A town hall meeting to review the proposed budget will be the week prior, October 16, 6:15 pm. Your presence and voice is an integral part of the church's work. Please make every effort to attend both of these meetings.

COMING SOON: Please take note of the following dates and make sure to have them on your calendar.

- Sunday, October 27: Happy Jack Church Social, 5:00 pm
- Sunday, November 3, 10, 17: Managing Mental Health series, 9:45 am
- Saturday, November 9: School for Discipleship, 9:00 am
