† Anthem Text †

I’ll Sing

I sing the mighty power of God that made the mountains rise, that spread the flowing seas abroad, and built the lofty skies. I sing the wisdom that ordained the sun to rule the day: The moon shines full at His command and all the stars obey. I’ll sing to the Lord while I live.

I sing the goodness of the Lord that filled the earth with food, I’ll sing. He formed the creatures with His Word and then pronounced them good. I’ll sing to the Lord while I live.

Lord, how Thy wonders are displayed where’er I turn my eye, if I survey the ground I tread or gaze upon the sky, the sky!

There’s not a plant or flower below but makes Thy glories known; and clouds arise and tempests blow, by order from Thy throne. While all that borrows life from Thee is ever in Thy care, and everywhere that man can be Thou God art present there. I’ll sing to the Lord while I live, I’ll sing!

At this time, FBC plans to continue Sunday and Wednesday activities as scheduled but respects the decision of each individual to alter their worship routine as they deem necessary during this time. Please use your knowledge and common sense to protect yourself and those around you, and carefully read the letter from Dr. Felton for detailed information and safety precautions.

THE BARNABAS GROUP: The March event for The Barnabas Group is an Irish lunch at The Brown Barrel in Midway. We will eat at 11:30 on St. Patrick’s Day, March 17. The bus will leave at 11:00 from Crestwood Baptist Church. There will be corned beef and cabbage on the menu, but they will also have their regular menu available. Sign up on the bulletin board or call the church office.

† Missions Moment †

At this year’s Thanksgiving Showcase, we had a packed house at our Overtown site as parents and relatives gathered for dinner and a show. We host this event as an opportunity to build stronger bonds with our families outside and bless our community with a memorable meal as Amanda, our Spiritual Formation Director, leads the show each year.

Every class had a different song they performed, each with a powerful message on the love of Christ. Our students practiced for weeks, and when it came down to performing, they really rocked! It was terrific seeing the crowd record the show on their cell phones, stand up and clap, and sing along. Not only could you see all the families beaming with pride, but you saw each instructors’ eyes light up watching their students perform.

One particular performance stood out, our 4th-5th grade “Marlins” group. One minute into the song, the music unexpectedly stopped, the class looked over at their TML instructor, Ms. Ashley, with concern on their faces. Ms. Ashley kept her cool and encouraged her students to keep singing and continue their choreography without the music. As everyone else cheered them on, the children belted out lyrics, “In every circumstance, no matter where I am, I will trust you, I will trust in You! It’s so sweet to trust in Jesus.”

At that moment, the words seemed to come alive for everyone under the sound of the students’ voices. Singing passionately, even amidst the technical difficulty, the children reminded us that no matter what the situation, God has everything under control. What could have been a disaster and awkward ending to their performance turned into a great lesson of overcoming and victory. It was beautiful to see the teamwork and self-confidence we teach our students on display.

Let us carry the lyrics within us; “It’s so sweet to trust in Jesus.”
